

NEWS ITEM.—AN ORDER HAS GONE OUT OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE TO CONDUCT ALL FUTURE TRUST INVESTIGATIONS SECRETLY AND TALK AFTERWARDS.

PRINCIPALS IN BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Mary Mattes, who is suing Hugh Crabbe, former manager of Levi Z. Letter estate and confidential man of "Joe" Letter, for $25,000 damages in a breach of promise suit, filed in Chicago, April 19.—The suit of Miss Mary Mattes to recover $25,000 alleged damages of the Levi Z. Letter estate and confidential man of Joe mony was very damaging to the prosecution, but today witnesses were procured who swore that Miss Mattes was not in Zeigler during the period that Mr. McDowell swore he was in company with her. Miss Mattes herself emphatically denies everything except a friendly acquaintance with the witness.

Hugh Crabbe was on the witness stand today and swore that every advance was made by Miss Mattes, that he never asked her to marry him and that he never struck her, as was claimed by the prosecution.

A damaging bit of testimony for the prosecution was given when John H. Kane and C. T. Kehoe, city detectives told of entrapping Miss Mattes and Lester Geist in the house at 5900 Michigan avenue. They said that they had gone there to look for a paroled prisoner.

"We had information that John Kane, the prisoner, was looking for, was living at 5900 Michigan avenue," said Kane. "We went there to serve the warrant on him. We entered the hallway and Miss Mattes opened the door of her room. We heard a man's voice in the room. Kehoe placed his foot in the opening and we tried to force the door."

"I ran to the outside and jumped through an open window. We found a man and woman, whom we afterward learned were Miss Mattes and Geist, in the room. The room was dark and they were thinly clad. Miss Mattes was attempting to push Geist through a side door, entering into another room. I grabbed Geist. Miss Mattes was clinging to him. In the struggle I threw both of them on the bed."

On cross-examination it was brought out that while the struggle was on several persons, including the landlady and others, appeared on the scene. With them also was Mrs. Dillon. Mrs. Dillon on the stand Monday admitted that she was a private detective employed by Crabbe and gave damning testimony against Miss Mattes.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Weldon, who live in the house at 5900 Michigan avenue, testified later in the afternoon that Geist and Miss Mattes were fully dressed at the time that the detectives entered the house.

EXAMS FOR FOREST CLERK

Will be held June sixteenth in Salt Lake.

Vacancies as they occur to be filled at salaries from $900 to $1,200.

Civil service examination for forest clerks in the forest service will be held June 16 at the following points: Colorado, Grand Junction, Idaho, Moscow and Boise; Montana, Butte, Nevada, Reno; Utah, Logan and Salt Lake City.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an examination on June 16, 1909, at the places mentioned, to secure eligibles from which to make certification to fill existing vacancies, at $900 per annum, in the position of clerk in the forest service, and vacancies requiring similar qualifications as they may occur, at salaries of from $900 to $1,200 per annum, depending upon conditions of service and location.

Eligibles will be subject to appointment for service in forest supervisors' offices at various points throughout the west. In a few places, owing to local conditions, the appointment of male clerks only can be considered. Many of the places of employment are desirable from a residence point of view. The forest service does not furnish either houses or subsistence. Applicants will be expected to report at places of employment at their own expense. The duties to be performed consist of carrying on office correspondence, keeping up files, and conducting routine business during the absence of the supervisor in the field. It is especially desired to secure the services of men for a number of these positions.

Existing vacancies to be filled as a result of this examination are as follows: in the national forests, with headquarters as indicated: Ashley forest, Vernal, Utah; Bonneville forest, Pinedale, Wyo.; Caribou forest, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Fillmore forest, Beaver, Utah; Fishlake forest, Salina, Utah; Dixie forest, St. George, Utah; La Sal forest, Moab, Utah; Nebo forest, Nephi, Utah; Humboldt forest, Elko, Nev.; Toiyabe forest, Austin, Nev.; Lemhi forest, Mackay, Idaho; Mantle forest, Ephraim, Utah; Payette forest, Emmett, Idaho.

For further information concerning this examination and the necessary blanks, application should be made to the Civil Service Commission, at Washington, or to the secretary of the board of examiners at the postoffice, Denver, Colo., or San Francisco, Cal.

MOST PECULIAR CASE ON MONTANA RECORD

Butte, Mont., April 28.—One of the most peculiar cases on record in this state developed today when C. W. Cockrell, a broker, 60 years old, was arrested and taken to the county jail to serve a nine-year sentence, or as long as the man whom he was convicted of having defrauded pays his board.

A. W. Deavitt, formerly of this city, but now of Spokane, Wash., gave Cockrell money to invest in certain stock for him. Cockrell bought the stock, but before turning it over, placed it as collateral for himself, on a marginal speculation, and lost it. Deavitt sued and the jury found Cockrell guilty and gave Deavitt judgment for $6,000.
